

With the use of satellite radio I'm able to keep up with the music. I live in Washington and they are late with everything. I have bought several CD's because I was able to be exposed to different kinds of music. I really hope they don't take my music away from us.